

Solution Architecture

OptiCrop — Smart Agricultural Production Optimization Engine

Solution Architecture — OptiCrop

Request flow: Browser -> Flask route -> pre-processing -> model.predict() -> rendered HTML response

OptiCrop follows a simple layered architecture: a presentation layer (HTML/Bootstrap pages), an application layer (Flask routes), a machine learning layer (scaler -> classifier -> label decoder), and a data layer (training dataset and serialized model artifacts).